

We come together for the magical, mystical candle-lit service of

Selichot

Saturday, September 1, 2018

A service of preparation, inspiration and awe.

Traditionally held at midnight,
our observance is somewhat earlier.

We begin at Lilienfeld House at 8:00 PM
for the acclaimed Israeli film
Lalechet Al HaMayim (Walk on Water)

Justice, revenge and repentance, retribution, reconciliation, terrorism, the Holocaust forgiveness, family, loyalty,
masculinity, power, death, life and love.

Following the film,
we enter the Sanctuary at 10:00 PM
to the melodies of the season,
where our youth will lead us in Havdalah
(the ceremony marking the end of Shabbat)
and then, in candlelight, to the call of the Shofar,
the service of Selichot begins.
