Ambassador Dani Dayan has served as Consul-General of Israel at its Consulate in New York City since August, 2016. Born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, he immigrated to Israel at age 15. He is an entrepreneur with experience in Israel's IT and hi-tech worlds, and is a passionate advocate for the future of Israel and the Jewish people.

He has become known as a bridge-builder, entering into dialogue and engagement with a wide-range of groups.

His nomination was supported by leaders from across the political spectrum in Israel.

Join us on Thursday, July 19
